

FEMALE WEAKNESS

542 1-2 Congress St.
Portland, Maine, Oct. 17, 1902.
I consider Wine of Cardui superior to any doctor's medicine I ever used and I know whereof I speak. I suffered for nine months with suppressed menstruation which completely prostrated me. Pains would shoot through my back and sides and I would have blinding headaches. My limbs would swell up and I would feel so weak I could not stand up. I naturally felt discouraged for I seemed to be beyond the help of physicians, but Wine of Cardui came as a God-send to me. I felt a change for the better within a week. After nineteen days treatment I menstruated without suffering the agonies I usually did and soon became regular and without pain. Wine of Cardui is simply wonderful and I wish that all suffering women knew of its good qualities.

Disturbances of strikers are not nearly as grave as an individual disorder of the system. Overwork, loss of sleep, nervous tension will be followed by a total collapse, unless a reliable remedy is immediately employed. THE SILENT REAPER.

SWYMER.

Henry Swymer, who has been a resident of our county since 1847, died at his home in Minton township, February 27, 1904, in the 73d year of his age. He was born in Chester county, Pennsylvania, in April, 1831, and when a mere lad located in Henderson county, Illinois, and in 1848 he came to this county, where he lived up to the time of his death. In 1875 he was married to his wife, who together with three children, remain to mourn his death. The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Mohler, of Falls City, Neb., on the 28th ult., at the Dunkard church, and the remains were laid away in the church graveyard.

SIPES.

Ester Maude, the beloved twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Sipes, was born November 22, 1902, and died January 22, 1904, aged 13 months and 29 days. She leaves her grief-stricken parents, two sisters and four brothers, besides her little twin brother—the companion of the breast, that now seems so lonely without her. The funeral was conducted by Rev. H. Hite, of Nodaway. "For of such is the Kingdom of Heaven," and as we cannot bring her back, we can go to her if we are faithful to Him, who alone is able to give and able to take away.

SIFERS.

Silas Birch Sifers, one of the early day mayors and citizens of Weston, Platte county, Missouri, died at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Prather Chesney, south of Forest City, on Wednesday, March 2, 1904, at the remarkable age of 93 years. Mr. Sifers was a native of Loudon county, Virginia, having been born on Christmas day, 1811. He learned the carpenter trade when quite young, being left an orphan. His wife was a Miss Wilkins, to whom he was married in 1837, and two years after wards he came to Missouri, locating at Weston, and engaged in the lumber business and was quite successful, until the crisis of 1857 swept his handsome competency away. During his residence at Weston he was elected mayor of the city, and in every way filled the measure of good citizenship. Mr. Sifers then went south and remained until 1892, when he returned to Missouri, and of late years has made his home with his daughter, Mrs. Chesney, who has cared for him with love and gratitude of the true noble child.

When Mr. Sifers was five months old Louisiana was admitted to the Union, and the Federal Union consisted of but seventeen states, and he has lived to see the territory of this government from this month, thirty-one states having been admitted to the Union since he was born. He was a lad of 6 summers when James Madison was inaugurated, and has lived to see twenty-two of the twenty-five Presidents of the United States inaugurated. He was a young man of 29 before the postage stamp was put in use, and has been here to see the introduction and invention of the sewing machine, the steam locomotive, the telegraph, the phonograph, the Atlantic Cable, the rapid granchine, the first locomotive, the manufacture of pins, the first use of kerosene, the first horse railroad, the first roller mat, the steel pen, the percussion gun, and we might go on down the list until our space was consumed.

He had been identified with the Masonic and Odd Fellows for nearly fifty years and had always maintained his standing in these orders. He was a 32d degree Mason and had filled all the chairs in the commandery and chapter and blue lodge, as well as the subordinate and encampment of the Odd Fellows. At the request of the New Orleans, La., lodge of Odd Fellows, the order at Forest City took charge of the funeral, and on Friday, the 4th inst., he was buried in the Baldwin cemetery by that lodge with the honors of the order.

UPLINGER.

Charles (Carder) Uplinger died suddenly at his home in Northern Holt on Thursday, February 26, 1904, and was buried in the Baldwin cemetery on the 27th ult.

HAYES.

Mary Ann Groves, daughter of Peter and Ann Groves, was born in Page county, Virginia, Nov. 5, 1829, and died at her residence in Oregon, Mo., March 2, 1904, aged 74 years, 4 months and 7 days.

She grew to womanhood in the place of her nativity, and on August 26, 1847, she was united to Solomon Comer, in marriage. They continued to reside in Page county, Virginia, until the fall of 1854, when they moved to Holt county, Missouri, travelling all the way in wagon, and finally settling on the spot where she died nearly fifty years afterward. Here she has lived all these years and has seen the development of this town.

On May 7, 1886, Solomon Comer died, leaving her in lonely widowhood. On Nov. 17, 1895, she was again united in marriage, this time to Thomas Hayes, who survives her. She was a faithful wife and home maker. In 1850, Mrs. Hayes with her husband united with the Baptist church. She in her younger days was quite zealous in promoting the cause of Christ, but in later years, owing to age and enfeebled health her labor has been circumscribed.

Mrs. Hayes is the mother of thirteen

Attention Famers!

Why remain in the North and stay in doors six months in the year consuming what you raise during the other six months?

Go south where you can work out doors every month in the year, and where you are producing something the year round. If you are a stock raiser you know your stock are now "eating their heads off" and, besides, have to be protected from the rigors of winter by expensive shelter.

Economical stock feeding requires the combination of both fish-forming and fat-forming foods in certain proportions. Alabama and Florida produce in abundance the velvet bean and cassava, the first a flesh producer, and the latter a fat producer, and they are the cheapest and best fattening materials known to the world.

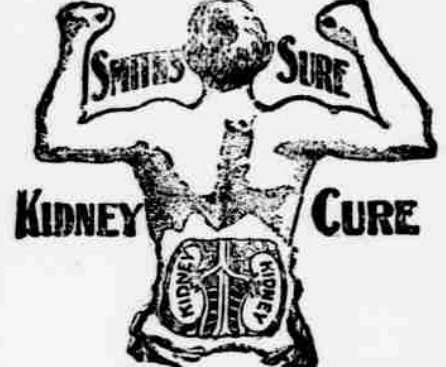

More money can be made and with less labor in general farming, fruit and berry growing and truck gardening along our road in the South than in any other section of the Union.

At the Oregon, Mo., show, which the "Oregonian" says, "Poultry Gazette" describes as "one of the hottest shows in the west." I won this year first cockerel, second pullet, and first pen. My customers were also in the winning at the St. Joseph show in December.

children, ten of which still live, viz: Peter M., of Las Gatos, Cal.; Jonas S. and D. B., of Mound City; Fannie Noland and Joseph Comer, Forest City; Kate H. Hardy, Edmund, Orla; Jennie C. Stephens, Denver, Col.; Annie Speeking, and George E. St. Louis; Stella DeLoevay, Kansas City. She also leaves 28 grand children and five great grand children.

Mrs. Hayes was a quiet and undemonstrative person, not given to cant or hypocrisy—plain and blunt in speech, leading many who may not understand her, that she was gruff, but with a kindly neighbor, especially clinging to the old acquaintances. Thus one by one these early settlers are leaving us. May God comfort her bereaved husband. Funeral services were held from the family home on Tuesday, 8th inst., and were conducted by Rev. Brock, who was assisted by Rev. Bower.

The Platte Purchase.

Examination of the treaty between the Sacs and Foxes and the Iowas, and the United States, by which, under the provisions of a prior act of congress, the state of Missouri became possessed of the territory embracing the present counties of Platte, Buchanan, Andrew, Holt, Atchison and Nodaway, affords some interesting illustrations of the "granny" statesman-ship always indulged in by the national government in its dealings with its copper-colored wards.

It provides, among other things, on behalf of the Indians, that, realizing (in substance) that from the fact that there was no natural boundary affording a barrier against the aggression of the whites, they were strictly up against it, and, "willing, moreover, to give the United States a renewed evidence of our attachment and friendship" (God save the mark) they relinquished their claim to the lands described.

The national government "gave" them "as a proof of continued friendship and liberality, the sum of $7,500; ceded them an equal amount of land, viz: The small strip of land on the south side of the Missouri River lying between the Kickapoo northern boundary line (whither, by the way, the said Kickapoos had once upon a time been likewise kicked by the government in exhibition of its uniform liberality), and the Grand Nemaha River * * * the lower half to the Sacs and Foxes, the upper half to the Iowas;" to erect for the Iowas five, and for the Sacs and Foxes three comfortable houses; and for each of the two tribes, to enclose and break up two hundred acres of ground; furnish them a farmer, blacksmith, schoolmaster, and interpreter as long as the President of the United States deems proper; rations for one year; one ferry boat; one hundred cows and calves, five bulls, one hundred stock hogs "when they may require them;" a mill; and to assist in removing them to the extent, for the Iowas $500 and the Sacs and Foxes $100. Dated September 17, 1836.

It was signed on behalf of the United States, by William Clark, Superintendent of the Indian Affairs; of the Iowas, by: Mohosca (White Cloud), Ne-Wan Thaw Chu (Hair Shredder), Nau-Chen-Ning (No Heart), Cha-Tau The-Ne (Big Bull), Wa Che Mo Ne (Orator), Con-Gu (Plumb), Man O Mone (Pumpkin), Cha-Ta-Thaw (Buffalo Bull), Ne-O Mo Ne (Raining Cloud), Man Hawk-Ka (Bunch of Arrows), and Wau Thaw-Ca-Ba-Chu (One that Eats Rats).

On behalf of the Sacs and Foxes, by an aggregation translated as Red Fox, Deer, Wolf, Green Lake, Bald-Headed Eagle, Bald Headed Eagle, Jr., Swan, Star and Sturgeon.

Some local historian ought to take up the matter and write a comprehensive history of the development of our county from that day to the present. From the records yet existing, amplified by the recollection of the few of the old settlers yet remaining, a most interesting and valuable little volume should be written. Before many years roll by, the latter, by far the more valuable source of information, will be beyond our reach. It may be that it would have only local interest, but as time passes, that interest will become more intense. The reminiscence and history of those sturdy times will not lose interest, but as we pass further from the conditions that bore them, they will continue to grow more curious and enchanting. It is a pity if they are not preserved.
